A

WORD

From the Editor

Those endless nights when we had homework for every class, and had to work until dawn (well . . . maybe 'til midnight?); the final realization that it was all worth it when you pulled an "A" in English; the cold gym and those hot (?) showers, and the gym clothes that looked and felt like cardboard, GREY cardboard; typing class and those innumerable perfect copies, and shorthand that looked like something you would have found on the Rosetta Stone (See, Mr. Wells, I DO remember something!); the sweat and strain that went into those ACT and SAT tests; the great NIGHT for juniors and seniors-the Prom; and the best of all DAYS, when the seniors shared their glory with no one-GRADUATION!

Here it is-your record for remembering everything. We hope you'll be able to leaf through it in ten years and say, "Why, I remember when that boy used to sit in front of me in English. And now he's . . ."

In Memoriam

James Russell Parks

We reflect now at your passing

Dusk turns to darkness,
Seasons change, the years escape us.
So it is with life.
It can change; it can escape us also.

Life's trials are many
And oft times they bring sorrow.
A deeper sorrow;
Where could one be found?

Peace has come to you now.
But be not afraid.
The memory of your past
Remains with us in our thoughts
Not to be forgotten.

Find solace in this.

FOOTBALL

From mid-August until mid-November, the coaches and members of the 1964 edition of the "Fighting Eagles" football team worked, sweated, and battled with the problem of putting that little oblong ball on the other side of the goal line.

That work paid off, too, as Eaton went on to a 5-4-1 season. The number one ground-gainer was Ron Hayes, who had a total of 507 yards in 123 carries for a 4.1 yards per carry. He was followed by Phil Manley and Tom Ferriell, who had 406 and 300 yards respectfully. Hayes also led the team in scoring with a total of 46 points. Tom Ferriell scored 32 points and Phil Manley scored 26 for second and third.

1964-65

In the passing department, Allan Brubaker completed 54 of 105 for 717 yards and a phenomenal 51%. His number-one receiver was Phil Manley. Phil caught 17 passes for 246 yards. Dave Kiracofe was second with 14 catches, and Kem Medaris had 12.

Much of the credit should go to the coaching staff, headed by Mr. Jack Harbaugh. Coach Harbaugh's fiery spirit helped the boys win. Mr. Harbaugh also brought the team's new nickname, "Fighting Eagles" the "Eagle of the Week" and "Headhunter" awards; and the practice of nick-naming the first, second, and third teams (Go-Team, Raider, Kamikaze).
